

1
EDITION

Business in MOONEE VALLEY

Economic Development Newsletter | December | 2007

2007 BUSINESS EXCELLENCE AWARD WINNERS

THE WINNER IS TWISTED RIBBON

Twisted Ribbon was announced as the winner of the 2007 Bendigo Bank Moonee Valley Business Excellence Award, at the Gala Awards Presentation in November.

At the Silks & Member's Dining Room, The Moonee Valley Racing Course hosted the glittering presentation that celebrated and named the best businesses in Moonee Valley. Comedian Bruno Lucia was MC making the night a memorable celebration.

To win the overall Award, your business had to first win one of the eight award categories.

Moonee Valley Mayor Cr Ben Opie said the two woman-owned and operated business edged out more than 250 entries in this year's awards to be named the overall prize winner.

"Twisted Ribbon is a fine example of the creativity, passion and entrepreneurial spirit that make Moonee Valley an exciting and vibrant place to do business," Cr Opie said.

The Avondale Heights business, run by Ophelia and Tia Rompotis specialises in personalised gift packages that have become known for their originality, quality and creativity, serving both individual and corporate clients since 2003. They scored a major coup last year when David Jones Pty Ltd became one of their clients. Twisted Ribbon also supports the local community by incorporating paid help from a local primary school as well as from organisations who help people with disabilities. Continued page 4.

Overall winner: Twisted Ribbon, award winners Ophelia and Tia Rompotis